

The College of Computing and Information and the CCIWIT women who attended the Grace Hopper Celebration of Women in Computing would like to share their stories on

Thursday
October 22, 2009
12-2 pm
in Campus Center 375

Lunch will be served

Please RSVP to: jgoodall@uamail.albany.edu

We will talk about:

- How the conference gives attendees an edge for job searching
- Just exactly how making connections and networks affects you
- Creating Technology for social good
- What its like to meet some of the Top Excutives at some of the Top Companies
- The good, the bad, the ugly... All about job interviews
- Major benefits for UG and Grad students
- The ability to find research collaborators
- Social Networking and meeting a range of people
- All about mentoring, how to get one, or be one!
- How to present at an international conference