Study Guide

Read Waldron’s book.

Study and practice writing your own MIPS programs that use conditionals and addressing modes to program loops to process elements in arrays, such as

```
minmax.a count.a
```

You will write code to process elements in linked lists for Lab Exercise 2.

Waldron’s examples are available in the Lab:

```
~/csi333/WaldronExamples
```